From a late ENGLISH PAPER.

EAST-INDIES.

ARTICLES of AGREEMENT between the Engliſh and Dutch.

Engliſh Demand.

Art. I. THE Director and Council of Chincura ſhall give full Satisfaction to the Preſident and Council of Fort-William, for the Inſult offered to the Britiſh Flag by the Commanders of the Dutch Ships, and for the Detention of many of our Veſſels, which were ſeized and ſtopped in the River, contrary to the Treaties which ſubſiſt between the two Nations, and for the other Acts of Hoſtility committed by the ſaid Ships.

Dutch Anſwer. The Director and Council of Chincura declare, that as they have always been poſſeſſed with Sentiments of Peace, the Troubles which have happened to diſturb the good Underſtanding between the two Nations, have only ſerved to give them a ſenſible Pain, and every Thing which has paſſed below, with reſpect to the Engliſh Flag, and the Inſults committed, is without their Order, and what they regret, and perhaps done by the People of the Ships, from a Miſunderſtanding of their Orders, with which they hope the Governor and Council will be fully ſatisfied.

Engliſh Demand II. The Director and Council of Chincura ſhall make good, both to the Company and Individuals, all Damages done by the Commanders of their Ships, whether by their Order or not; and ſhall immediately reſtore all the Veſſels, Stores and Effects, which may ſtill be in their Poſſeſſion.

Dutch Anſwer. As the Dutch Veſſels have alſo been much damaged, the real Loſs will be willingly made good; but it is to be hoped the Governor and Council reflect equitably on this Article; and if they inſiſt upon it, we ſhall endeavour to ſatisfy them.

Dutch Demand I. That the Engliſh ſhall effect the Nabob's Return, or, at leaſt, to prevail on him to remain quiet in his Camp, without doing us any Injury; and that the Articles of our Agreement be accepted, approved and confirmed by the Nabob's Principal, as far as they concern him, as well for the preſent as for the future.

Engliſh Anſwer. We have already made uſe of all our Intereſt with the Nabob, and ſhall continue to engage him to withdraw his Arms, the Moment the Dutch Governor has fulfilled his Orders. The Articles agreed on between the Engliſh and Dutch cannot be included in the Treaty which the Government of Hughley may conclude with the Nabob's Principal.

Dutch Demand II. That what has paſſed, during the Troubles which have now ceaſed, ſhall be mutually forgot; and an Aſſurance given of a perfect Friendſhip, Fidelity and Correſpondence, being kept up between the two Nations, by their reſpective Chiefs, without permitting any Hoſtility on one Side or the other, on any Pretence whatſoever. That each ſhall do his utmoſt to preſerve this Intelligence, and to contribute, as far as poſſible, to the Good of both, without aſſiſting, directly or indirectly, thoſe who would prejudice either.

Engliſh Anſwer. Approved, as far as is conſiſtent with the Alliance between the Nabob and us, and while Friendſhip ſubſiſts between our Sovereigns in Europe.

Dutch Demand III. As we have neither acted by Declaration of War, nor by Commiſſion, our Troops and Mariners cannot be conſidered as Priſoners of War, ſubject to a Capitulation; but merely as temporary Captives, and therefore ought to be ſet at Liberty, with all military Honours.

Engliſh Anſwer. We do not look upon the Dutch Officers and Troops as our Priſoners, but as thoſe of the Nabob; and are therefore ready to releaſe them, as ſoon as they have concluded their Treaty with him, except ſuch as are willing to enter our Service, or who demand the Protection of the Engliſh Flag.

Dutch Demand IV. That they ſhall leave us in the free Poſſeſſion of our Settlements, Commerce, Rights and Privileges.

Engliſh Anſwer. We have never interrupted the Dutch in their juſt Rights and Privileges, nor ever purpoſe doing it.

Dutch Demand V. That all the People, Poſſeſſions, Settlements, Lands, Houſes, Ships and Veſſels, belonging both to the Company and Individuals, and every Thing belonging thereto, ſhall be declared free and reſtored, in Preſence of the Deputies appointed by both Parties, in their proper Condition.

Engliſh Anſwer. All the Ships and Veſſels in our Poſſeſſion ſhall be reſtored as ſoon as our Demands are complied with, or on an Aſſurance thereof given by the Director and Council of Hughley.

Dutch Demand VI. Theſe Treaties to be exchanged with the Approbation of the Directors of both Companies, as ſoon as poſſible.

Engliſh Anſwer. Granted.

Dutch Demand VII. Finally, The two Parties ſhall be reciprocal Guarantees for the Execution of the preceding Articles.

Engliſh Anſwer. We do not ſee any Neceſſity for this Article.

Articles agreed upon by the Dutch Company with the Nabob, and ratified under the Hands and Seals of the Dutch Director and Council, and the Seal of the Company.

I. We will immediately ſend away the Europeans, Buccaſſes and Tilangas, that have been brought hither in our Ships, and we will diſmiſs the Europeans, Seapoys, and Burgundaſſes, lately entertained.

II. We will bring no more armed Forces into the Country of Bengal; nor ever make War in the Country, nor erect any Fortifications, nor make any military Preparations.

III. We will entertain no more than 125 European Soldiers in all our Factories eſtabliſhed within the three Provinces.

IV. We will carry on our Trade with Peace and Quietneſs; and in caſe (which God forbid) our Buſineſs ſhould meet with any Obſtructions, Diſputes, or Oppreſſions, we will apply for Redreſs to the Nazem of the Provinces.

The Subſtance of the Memorial preſented by General Yorke to the States-General, concerning the Diſputes in the Eaſt-Indies, is as follows:

"That their High Mightineſſes were already informed by the public News Papers, of an Event as ſurprizing as irregular, in Conſequence of the Conduct which the Dutch have held for ſome Time in the Eaſt-Indies, and lately in the River of Bengal, notwithſtanding the Regard which the Britiſh Subjects had on every Occaſion ſhewn for them: That their High Mightineſſes muſt be greatly aſtoniſhed to hear by his Memorial of that extraordinary and unexpected Event, but that they would be much more ſo on reading the Piece annexed to it, containing a minute Account, drawn up with the ſtricteſt Regard to Truth, of the Irregularity of the Behaviour of the Dutch, at a Time when they enjoyed all the Sweets of Peace, and all the Advantages of an unmoleſted Trade; at a Time, in ſhort, when his Majeſty, from his great Regard for their High Mightineſſes, carefully avoided giving them the leaſt Umbrage.

"That his Britannick Majeſty was greatly ſtruck to hear of the monſtrous Proceedings of the Dutch in the Eaſt-Indies, and their miſchievous Deſigns to deſtroy the Settlements of his Subjects there, which they would certainly have effected, had not his Majeſty's victorious Arms brought them to Reaſon, though only three of his Ships engaged ſeven Dutch Ships, and obliged them to conclude an Accommodation: That his Majeſty would willingly believe that their High Mightineſſes gave no Orders for coming to ſuch Extremities, and that the Directors of the India Company had no Hand therein: That, nevertheleſs, he (Mr. Yorke) was ordered to demand, in the Name of the King his Maſter, ſignal Satisfaction; and that all who ſhould be found to have had any Share in this Offence, which manifeſtly tended to the Deſtruction of the Britiſh Settlements in that Country, ſhould be exemplarily puniſhed; and that their High Mightineſſes ſhould moreover give Orders that the Stipulations agreed on, the Day after the Action, between the Directors of the reſpective Companies, in Conſideration of which the Dutch had their Ships reſtored, after they had acknowledged their Fault, and that they were the Aggreſſors, ſhould be ſtrictly complied with."

The Anſwer of the States-General to Mr. Yorke's Memorial concerning the Difference between the Engliſh and Dutch in India, hath been miſrepreſented. It imported, "That nothing had as yet come to the Knowledge of their High Mightineſſes, of what their Subjects were charged with; that they requeſted his Britannic Majeſty to ſuſpend his Judgment till he ſhould be exactly informed of the Grounds of thoſe Diſputes; and that his Majeſty ſhould have Reaſon to be ſatisfied with the exemplary Puniſhment of all who ſhould be found to be concerned in that Affair."

BOSTON, January 5.

Tueſday in the Forenoon, his Honour the Lieutenant Governor, the Honourable his Majeſty's Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives, and a Number of other Gentlemen, waited upon his Excellency the Governor at the Province Houſe; from whence they walked in Proceſſion to the Council Chamber, being eſcorted by the Company of Cadets, commanded by Colonel Jarvis; the Regiment of Militia, commanded by Colonel Philips, were muſtered on the Occaſion, and appeared under Arms in Kingſtreet. About 12 o'Clock the Proclamation was read, and repeated with a loud Voice from the Balcony of the Court-Houſe; and on finiſhing with God ſave the King, three Huzzas were given by a vaſt Concourſe of People of all Ranks, aſſembled on this Occaſion; which was followed by three Vollies from the Regiment of Militia and Company of Cadets; and upon a Signal given, 63 Pieces of Cannon were diſcharged at Caſtle-William, and alſo a Round at each of the Batteries in this Town, and at Charles-Town. In the Evening there were public Illuminations, and a handſome Entertainment provided at Faneuil-Hall, where the Health of his Majeſty King GEORGE the THIRD, the Royal Family, and many other Loyal Healths were drank. The whole Ceremony was carried on and concluded with great Decency and good Decorum.

Thurſday Morning all the Bells in this Town began to Toll on Account of the Death of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the SECOND, and continued tolling moſt Part of the Day. And at Ten o'Clock, Minute Guns, to the Number of 77, the Years of his Majeſty's Age, were Diſcharged at Caſtle-William.

The

The ſame Day his Excellency the Governor, and the two Houſes of Aſſembly, attended Divine Service at the Old Brick Meeting Houſe, where a Sermon was preached by the Reverend Mr. Cooper, upon the ſorrowful Occaſion of the Death of our late Moſt Gracious Sovereign GEORGE the SECOND. And,

In the Afternoon of the ſame Day, a Sermon was preached by the Reverend Mr. Caner, at the King's Chapel, where his Excellency, and the Members of the Court attended.

NEW-YORK, January 19.

On Thurſday Afternoon laſt arrived here his Majeſty's Ship Fowey, Captain Toning, by whom his Honour the Preſident received Diſpatches, confirming the Death of our late Moſt Gracious Sovereign King GEORGE the SECOND, on the 25th of October 1760; as alſo Others for proclaiming his preſent Majeſty; Duplicates of which his Honour likewiſe received by an Expreſs from Boſton the ſame Day, brought thither by Captain Vernon, in ſeven Weeks from London. In Conſequence of which, Orders were iſſued on Friday for the Militia to appear under Arms the Day following, being Saturday, when, about Twelve o'Clock, his Majeſty was proclaimed in Fort George, under the Diſcharge of a Royal Salute (Twenty One) from the Ramparts: After which his Honour, accompanied by his Excellency Governor Ellis, of Georgia, who arrived here a few Days ago, via Philadelphia, the Hon. his Majeſty's Council, ſuch Members of the General Aſſembly as were in Town, the Mayor and Corporation, the Clergy, and Numbers of other Gentlemen, walked in Proceſſion up the Broad Way, headed by John Roberts, Eſq; Sheriff, with his proper Officers, and eſcorted by Captain De Peyſter's Grenadier Company, and the Troop of Horſe under Lieut. M'Evers, through the Lines of the Militia formed by Colonel De Lancey, to the City-Hall, where the Proclamation was repeated, and a general Huzza given, under another Royal Salute from the Fort. From thence the Proceſſion returned to Fort-George, where his Majeſty's Health was drank, followed by a Royal Salute, and the Militia diſcharged; after which the King of Pruſſia's Health was drank, and a Royal Salute given on Account of his late glorious Victory over the Auſtrian grand Army under Count Daun. The Fowey Man of War alſo gave a Royal Salute, as did the Earl of Halifax Packet-Boat, Captain Bolderſon, &c. and notwithſtanding the Severity of the Weather, the Whole began and concluded with great Order and Decency.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) Dec. 30.

Letters from Auguſta, dated the 22d Inſt. bring no favourable Accounts of the preſent Diſpoſition of the Creek Nation. The Long-Warrior of Coweta inform'd, that a great Number of Creeks and Cherokees were to have a Meeting about the Middle of this Month, in the Forks of Okonih River, about 20 Miles beyond the upper Path leading to the Oakfuſkees, which he thinks portends no Good. The Wolf was on his Way to Savannah, in Conſequence of the Invitation given him by Governor Ellis, and repeated by Lieutenant-Governor Wright, and was arrived at Ogeachy: He was accompanied by 12 other Indians, who ſerved as an Eſcort to Mr. James Germany, the Trader of Mucculaſſah.—Joſeph Cornel, who arrived at Auguſta the 21ſt, from the Upper Creek Nation, ſays, That the Indians were inſolent to the laſt Degree, and publickly threatned to cut off the Traders in the Spring, ſome ſay in February, others in March: That the Wolf continued our Friend, but he believed it would not be in his Power to prevent the French and Cherokee Party ſtriking a Blow ſoon: That the Mortar continued indefatigable in Behalf of the Cherokees; and his Brother openly declared, he would kill the Engliſh Traders as well in the Nation as on the Road to Auguſta: And that the Wolf deſired him (Cornel) if he, on his Way down ſhould meet any Traders with Goods going up, to ſtop them from proceeding till he came down.

December 31. We have certain Advices from the Southward, that the Creeks and Cherokees were to have a Meeting in the Woods about this Time.

The Creek Indians ſtill continue coming to Savannah, but none of them pretend to have any Authority from their Nation. The well known Simpeoſey, or Fool-Harry, and the Young Lieutenant, are two of the Creeks that were to have the Meeting with the Cherokees. The Mortar continues his Attachment to the French; at the ſame Time the Wolf-King remains ſtaunch to the Britiſh Intereſt, and intends to come down ſoon to ſee the Governors.

There have been no French Privateers ſince 1758 in the Harbour of St. Auguſtine, nor have any additional Works been made there, or the former repaired, ſince the Commencement of the preſent War.

Yeſterday four Chickeſaws arrived in Town, with a Talk to his Honour from Piamingo, who is at Auguſta, and is ſoon to return Home, when he will go out againſt the Cherokees.

The Little Carpenter (Attakullakulla) returned to Colonel Byrd's Camp punctually at his Time, with ſuch white Priſoners as he was able to purchaſe from the other Indians. He would have deſtroyed Lantiniac, and his Companions; but was told by the Indians, if he did ſo, they would deſtroy the white Priſoners. Lantiniac brought only one Keg of Powder, a little Brandy, and a few Knives and Hatchets, as Preſents. This Attakullakulla thinks will have no bad Effect, but on the contrary convince the Indians of the Poverty of the French, and their Inability to help them. He ſet out from the Camp, on his Return, about the 1ſt Inſt. having with his People received handſome Preſents from the Government of Virginia. His Party begins to increaſe in the Nation.

Jan. 10. On Tueſday and Thurſday arrived five large Tranſports from New-York (under Convoy of his Majeſty's Ship Nightingale, Captain Campbell) having on board upwards of 1100 Rank and File of his Majeſty's Troops, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel James Grant. Theſe Troops are deſtined to act againſt the Cherokees, and will ſtay here no longer than is abſolutely neceſſary.——Six Mohawks are alſo arrived with the Troops.

On Thurſday ſome unfavourable Accounts were received from Auguſta, dated the 5th Inſtant. The Wolf had been there 13 Days, but ſeemed to decline the Viſit he intended to make to Georgia and this Province: His Return to the Creek Nation may be attended with very bad Conſequences.

Jan. 14. On Thurſday laſt forty Waggons came to Monck's Corner from the back Settlements: Large Quantities of Proviſions having been ſent by the Contractors to Watboo-Landing, for the Magazines on the Frontiers; theſe Waggons are employed in that Service.

The Barracks, on which a great Number of Hands were employed, being put into Repair, agreeable to the Orders iſſued by the Governor, the Troops from New-York Yeſterday began to diſembark; they are in Number about twelve Hundred. We hear Quarters will be provided in Town for ſuch of the Officers as cannot be accommodated in the Barracks. 'Tis thought the Troops will remain here ſome Time, the Want of Forage rendering a March to the Weſtward at preſent impracticable.

The South-Carolina Regiment of Rangers, commanded by Major William Thomſon, is complete, viz. 525 Men, excluſive of Officers, and is continued in Pay.

Jan. 17. The Negroes, it ſeems, have again begun the helliſh Practice of Poiſoning. A Fellow called Abraham, belonging to Mr. John Gibbons, and a Wench of Mr. George Fickling, were executed laſt Wedneſday, on Wadmelah-Iſland, convicted of that Crime. Mr. Fickling was the Perſon poiſoned, but having ſpeedy Recourſe to Cæſar's Antidote, he recovered.

Jan. 21. On Saturday laſt, on a Meſſage from his Honour the Governor, the Honourable the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly Reſolved to make Proviſion for continuing the ſeven Companies of Rangers in the Pay of this Province till October next, and for raiſing and paying another Troop of Rangers, to conſiſt, as the former, of a Captain, two Lieutenants, and 75 Privates. The Houſe have likewiſe provided Pay for an Adjutant, Quarter-maſter, and Surgeon, for the Rangers, and a Sum to purchaſe a Medicine Cheſt. The Captains, Lieutenants, and Surgeon, of the Rangers, have the ſame Pay as the Officers of the like Rank in the Provincial Regiment of Foot. By another Reſolution, the Houſe Reſolved to make good any Deficiency that may have ariſen in the Money provided for the Pay of the Rangers to the firſt of December laſt.

The new Company of Rangers, we are aſſured from good Hands, will be immediately filled up, when that Regiment, commanded by Major Thomſon, will conſiſt of ſix Hundred, excluſive of Officers.

Letters from Auguſta of 29th ult. and 4th Inſtant, received laſt Thurſday, ſay, That our old firm Friend the Wolf King of Mucculaſſah, in the Creek Nation, had been there for ſome Time, and was preparing to ſet out for Savannah to ſee Governor Wright, whence he will come to Charles-Town to ſee Governor Bull. He ſeemed well ſatisfied, and by a Letter of 11th Inſtant we learn he was to go to Savannah next Day.

The Cherokees and Creeks ſeem to be determined to keep up the War; which will, no Doubt, end in the Deſtruction of both.

Now in the Port of Charles-Town, three of his Majeſty's Ships of 20 Guns, five large Tranſport Ships, one Privateer Brig, and the following Merchant Veſſels, viz. 21 Ships, 8 Snows, 20 Brigs, 5 Schooners, and 12 Sloops: In all 75 Sail.

This Day arrived a Meſſenger from the Cherokees with Diſpatches to his Honour from Mr. Miln, Commandant of Fort Prince-George, Keowee.

Fort Prince-George, Jan. 9th, 1761.—"The Young Warrior of Eſtatoe, with ten other Indians of that Town, went down towards the Settlements about 25th ult. and about two Miles from Beaverdams came up with two Men, ſuppoſed to be of the Rangers, one of whom they ſcalped, and laid his dead Body acroſs the Road, the other made his Eſcape.—The Indians of Settiquo tied one of the Women belonging to the Garriſon of Fort Loudoun to a Stake, and ſhot her full of Arrows, in which miſerable Condition ſhe died. We learn that the Indians of Tellico and Settiquo declare they will put every white Priſoner to Death whenever they hear of an Army being at Ninety-ſix; and they have ſent down Powder and Ball to their Lower Towns People, with Orders to watch the Road, and give them Notice of the Approach of an Army; for this Purpoſe Scouts are conſtantly kept out, and as one Party comes in another goes out, whereby the Road is never clear. There ſeems as little Proſpect of an Accommodation as when they firſt broke out.——We expect Major Thomſon will ſoon make us another Viſit.—I have ſeen ſeveral Winters in the North of Scotland, and do not think I ever felt it Colder than here at this Time; the Snow is in general three Quarters of a Yard deep, attended with very ſharp Froſts.——

——"Jan. 11. I diſpatched the Expreſs laſt Night; he went as far as Twelve-mile River, where he heard the Noiſe of a Hatchet as employed in cutting Wood, and preſently after diſcovered two Fires on the oppoſite or Eaſtern Side of the River, one at each Fording Place; this made him return with as much haſte as poſſible, being afraid they might take his Track as the Snow lay thick on the Ground; he got back to the Fort undiſcovered."

"I had this Day the following Intelligence; The Indians of theſe Lower Towns are all in a ſtarving Condition, not having a Grain of Corn to eat, and inſtead of their Chintz and Callico Petticoats, they are now making them of Deer-ſkins. The Creeks have ſent Runners to theſe Indians (the Lower Towns) inviting them to the Creek Nation, where they are to be protected, and in 5 Days they ſet off in conſequence of this Invitation and Promiſe: The Creeks have likewiſe promiſed the other Towns of the Nation, that they will aſſiſt them if they are attacked by the Engliſh. Ocannoſtota is returned from the French Fort with Powder and Ball, accompanied with ſome Frenchmen, but how many I cannot learn. None of the Indians, poſſeſſed of white Priſoners, will part with them unleſs they are paid for them. The Young Warrior ſent me Word, that as he was now going out of the Nation (to the Creeks) I would ſee who were Rogues when he was gone.——He ſays the Standing-Turkey put the Hatchet into his Hands, and bid him carry on the War; and particularly that he ordered him to way-lay the Expreſs that brought the laſt Peace-Talk from the Middle-Settlements, kill him, and take the Letters.——"

We learn from Ninety-ſix of 14th Inſtant, that the Indians who lay in wait for Richard Robertſon, the laſt Meſſenger ſent up, killed a poor Man whom they took for him, by which Means Robertſon got up ſafe.

Captain Bell at Ninety-ſix having received Intelligence that M'Gunningham and James Welſh, with a Squaw in Fort Ninety-ſix, were Spies for the Indians, ſent them down to Congarees under a Guard, on the 14th Inſtant; the two laſt were delivered as Priſoners at the Camp, but M'Gunningham got off.

Monday laſt Captain Moultrie ſet out from the Camp at Congarees, with a Detachment, to eſcort thirty Waggons loaded with Flour to the Magazine at Ninety-ſix.

BOSTON,

BOSTON, January 26.

Captain Furlong, late of a Schooner, bound from Quebec to New-York, arrived here Yesterday Passenger in a Vessel from Halifax, and informs, That after he left the River St. Lawrence, he met with very bad Weather, which obliged him to lay to; when, on the 13th of November, at Ten o'Clock at Night, his Vessel drove on Isle Sable:——He had on board Major Elliot, with his Lady, and a Party of about 50 regular Troops, who all got on Shore safe, excepting two of the Seamen that were drowned. When they landed, they found the Company of another Schooner, which had been cast away a few Days before, one Potter, Master, belonging to Ipswich, and was bound from Louisburg for Boston:—There being no Place for Habitation, or Wood for Fuel, on the Island, they took the Sails of the Vessels to make a Covering, and Pieces of the Wrecks served for Firing, it being exceeding cold Weather. There were a Number of live Cattle on the Island; but they saved little or no Bread, nor indeed scarce any Thing that belonged to the Vessels.—After being seven Weeks in this deplorable Condition, they discovered a Marblehead Schooner making towards them; but the Sea running high, and the Weather very boisterous, only the above Captain Furlong, and some of the Seamen could get on board: They immediately sailed for Halifax, leaving the Major, with his Lady, and about Fifty others behind; who were in Health, except Captain Potter.

The above Marblehead Schooner was fitted out by the People of that Place, in Quest of one of their Fishing Schooners, which had been missing from the Banks the last Fishing Season, and supposed to be on the above Island Sable; but tho' they had not the Pleasure of finding their Brethren there, yet they came very opportunely to the Relief of others in Distress.——Upon the Arrival of the above Schooner at Halifax, Commodore Lord Colvill ordered one of the Tenders to accompany the Marblehead Schooner, which was taken into Bay to proceed immediately to Island Sable, to bring off those left behind.

NEW-YORK, February 12.

We hear that the Ship General Johnson, from Jamaica for this Port, is aground near Shrewsbury.

On Saturday Evening arrived Capt. Jordan, in a Sloop from Maryland, bound to this Place, but meeting with bad Weather was obliged to put into New-Port; we hear most of his People were Frostbitten.

Friday last Captain Stewart arrived here in 21 Days from St. Eustatia, in whom came three Seamen late belonging to the Sloop Dolphin, of New-Haven, Gadwell, Master. They inform us, That being bound to Antigua, within about 12 Leagues of it, on the 20th December last, they were taken by a French Privateer of 8 Guns, and 55 Men, Petton, Commander, and that she was sent up to Martinico, together with the Capt. who soon got to Eustatia. These Men were kept ten Days on board the Privateer, when they came across a Dutch Ship bound to that Island, on board of whom they were put.

They also inform us, that another Sloop, called the Ruby, belonging to New-Haven, Phineas Cook, Master, outward bound, was taken about ten Days after by a French Privateer Sloop of 15 Guns, after two Hours smart Engagement; when the Frenchmen boarded Cook, they used him extremely ill, running a Broad Sword through his Arm, and beating him about with the Butt End of a Gun, insomuch that his Life was despaired of. This Prize Monsieur sent into St. Martins.

By a Letter received lately from Lambert Garrison, Master of the Brig Young William, of this Port, who sailed from Bristol the 29th October, bound to New-York, we have an Account of his being obliged to put into St. Christophers by Stress of Weather, having lain on his Beam-Ends, and has had Four and a Half Feet Water in his Hold; all his Spars, and some of his Water, washed off his Deck, whereby said Vessel was rendered unfit to come upon this Coast: The greatest Part of his Cargo is damaged.

Friday last the Billander William and Anne, Captain Heslip, arrived here from London, with King's Stores, after a tedious Passage of fourteen Weeks.

We hear there are now not less than 15 Privateers belonging to Hispaniola, and that they met with great Success; one of them took Captain Prince, in a Sloop belonging to this Port, off Cow Harbour, the Day he sailed from Kingston, in Jamaica.

Friday last the Garrison of Detroit arrived here from Philadelphia, about 40 in Number, and were immediately sent to Long-Island.

The Sloop Dove, Fenton, Master, belonging to this Port, is taken by a French Privateer, and carried into Santa-Croix.

PHILADELPHIA, February 19.

Capt. Washington, from Jamaica, on the Sixth of January, off Cape Nichola, spoke with Capt. Hickey, in the Sloop Pine-Apple, bound to Monto Christi from Virginia. And two Days after he fell in with a Privateer belonging to New-Providence, the Commander of which informed him, that he had spoke with a Providence Vessel, a Wrecker, that had taken several Men off the Hogsties, that were cast away there in a large Ship from Jamaica, which is supposed to be the Eagle Galley, of Bristol, Captain Nash, as the same Day a large lower Mast, without any Rigging on it, was seen floating along Side Captain Washington's Vessel.

ANNAPOLIS, February 26.

Last Friday his Excellency our Governor, in Council, was pleased to Prorogue the General Assembly of this Province, which stood Prorogued to the 9th of March next, to Monday the 23d Day of the same Month.

Monday last the Coroner's Inquest, on the Body of the Infant found Murder'd in a Pond, as mentioned last Week, ended; but were not able to discover the Murderer.

The unnatural Mother of the Dead Infant found in a Well at Chester-Town, (likewise mentioned in our last) has confess'd the Fact.

WANTED,

A MAN who underſtands the Management of a WIND-MILL. Such a One will meet with good Encouragement, by applying to the Subſcriber at Herring-Bay.

SAMUEL CHEW.

STOLEN from the Subſcriber, near Upper-Marlborough, in the Night of the 24th of November laſt, a Black Horſe, about 17 Years old, 13 Hands high, branded on one of his Buttocks with S, has ſeveral Saddle Spots about his Withers, a Switch Tail, a hanging Mane, paces and gallops, and trots, eſpecially up a riſing Ground. The Perſon ſuſpected to have ſtole him, is one Thomas Hamilton, an Iriſhman, who ſaid he was going to Annapolis on an Errand of Col. Taylor's in Virginia, and that he was Col. Taylor's Overſeer. It is likely he will ſell the Horſe, as I expect he will tire or founder, the ſaid Hamilton having with him a large Luggage, conſiſting of Broad-Cloth, ſtriped Holland, a very good Saddle, and Houſing with a Silk Fringe.

If he is Sold, and any Perſon will inform the Subſcriber, or if he is offered to Sale, will ſtop him ſo as he may be had again, ſhall have Thirty Shillings Reward from BASIL BURGESS.

STOLE from the Subſcriber's Stable, on Friday Evening the 29th of January, a half-worn brown Hunting Saddle, and a checked Swan-ſkin Saddle Cloth; with a Pair of remarkable double eyed Braſs Stirrups; and a Pelham Bridle with double Reins.

Whoever finds the Saddle and Bridle, and returns them, ſhall receive Twenty Shillings Reward; but any Perſon detecting the Thief, ſo that he may be convicted of the Crime, ſhall have a Reward of Forty Shillings, paid by

RICHARD TOOTELL.

WHEREAS the Act of Aſſembly of this Province, made and paſſed in 1733, for emitting and making current Ninety Thouſand Pounds, is near Expiring; The Commiſſioners of the Loan Office therefore think it their Duty, to inform all thoſe who have any Bonds in that Office, to come and diſcharge the ſame; otherwiſe they will be proceeded againſt as the Law directs.

Signed per Order,

ROBERT COUDEN, Cl. P. C. Office.
